Installing the new version of the GCET TV App

Make sure your Roku TV device is connected to your home internet (Wi-Fi or wired ethernet). On the Roku Home screen, search for “GCET”. Select the “GCET” version, as shown below. Add the app, then open it.

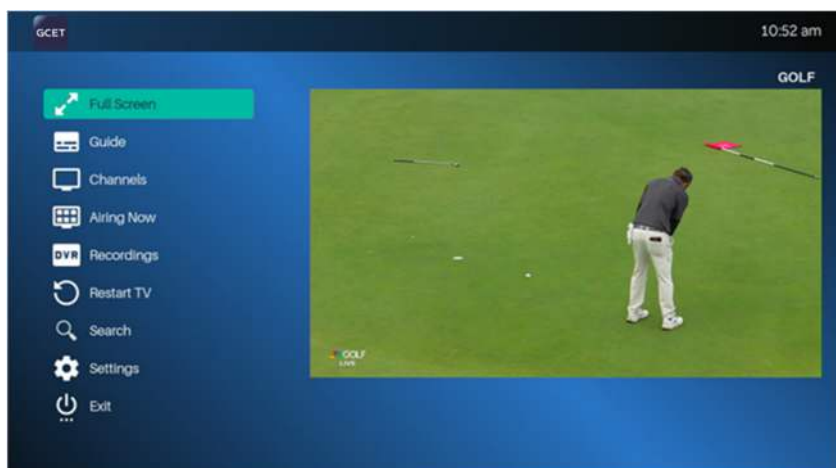

Log in with your username and password, then type in any device name you want. NOTE: You must use a unique device name for each Roku TV device. Then select “Submit”. If you see an error, please check that you entered the login correctly.

In a few moments, you will see the first live TV channel in the lineup with the main Menu as shown below.

NOTE: Once the new GCET TV app is now successfully installed, you may uninstall your previous GCET TV app or wait for it to automatically delete on January 31, 2026.

Main Menu

Introduction to Your TV Features

Here are some of the main features available to you.

- Replay a program that aired up to 24 hours ago – go back up to 24 hours ago in the TV Guide to watch or record a program
- Pause Live TV – you can always pause Live TV, but you have more options when you press the center circle “OK” button on your remote (including starting any program over from the beginning)
- See the last 10 channels you watched - while watching a program, press the center circle remote button and scroll down a few rows to display the “Last Watched” channel menu
- Record - what you are watching live or schedule a future recording from the TV Guide. You have 112 hours of recording space, and recordings are kept for 7 days

Getting Started with the Remote Control Main Features

ROKU REMOTE CONTROL MAIN FEATURES

KEY	FUNCTIONS
1	Return to GCET Main Menu
2	Exit GCET TV to Roku Home Screen
3	Select Program Options while watching full screen TV
4	Directional Arrows for Navigation
5	Closed Captioning Options

Reminder For all Roku devices, pressing the asterisk button five (5) times in a row can activate the Screen Reader feature, where a voice narrates what is happening onscreen. If you accidentally enable the Screen Reader, simply press the asterisk button four (4) more times. This will toggle the feature off.
